

SMPS Legal is extremely excited to share the recognition and acknowledgment received by its Foreign Trade and Customs Practice as well as the head of the Practice, Alexis Michel, from the Legal 500 Publication in its 2014 Edition:

“San Martín y Pizarro Suárez, S.C. was founded by two former Gardere, Arena y Asociados S.C. partners in 2012 and has ‘hit the ground running’. The firm hired ‘recognised figure’ Alexis Michel to open its international trade practice in mid-2013. With over 15 years’ experience in the sector, Michel has extensive expertise in tariff classification, customs valuation, compliance audits, FTAs, verification-of-origin and certifications, anti-dumping, and foreign trade development programmes such as IMMEX. He is currently head of the foreign trade commission of the Mexican bar association.”
